

Faith Louise releases latest single "What I Need"

Essex, Clacton-on-Sea, Feb 1, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Faith Louise is back putting a modern twist on 90s dance-pop with the new single 'What I Need'. A feel-good dance track, 'What I Need' speaks to the excitement of instant attraction, with the vocals and instrumental reflecting that firework feeling. 'What I Need' is an instant club banger, recorded with Faith's producer Ashea at SAFO Music Group in London. "Even if it is for three minutes I hope it gives people something they can enjoy and love as much as I do," explains Faith Louise who sings and writes with a maturity far beyond her 15 years. We can't wait till dancing together is possible again, and this is the first track that we'll be spinning on the dancefloor!

At just 15, Essex based pop singer Faith Louise is already shaping up to be a promising young artist and definitely one to watch if you love all things pop music. A massive KPop, the 90s, Club, and Pop music fan herself, Faith Louise expresses her love for these genres in her new songs. Working with Ashea of SAFO Music Group in London, she is carefully crafting her artist's image and deciding on the path that she wants her music to take. Since 2017 she has won a host of awards including Best Young Actress in North East Essex, Best Breakthrough Artist in the South East of England Entertainment Awards, and she is also the current Winner of Season 10 of Factor Essex. Her debut single amassed over 4000 streams on Spotify and 13,000 views on YouTube, with her follow up single 'Blaa' being received just as well.
