Essex, Stansted, Feb 3, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Plumbing is a matter that should only be handled by experts. One wrong move can lead to grave consequences resulting in leaking water, the formation of fungus, deterioration of equipment, and other related problems. IJR Plumbing and Heating is a company that holds serious expertise in all things plumbing related. By delivering services exactly as claimed to be, IJR Plumbing and Heating has built up the reputation of being one of the most trusted and honest plumbing and heating local companies.

IJR Plumbing and Heating has an industry experience of over a decade. Within this time frame, the company has grown to a massive extent. This growth is still increasing and IJR Plumbing and Heating is still expanding the services by hiring new talent. With the onboarding of new engineers, the company will continue providing professional work to even more people. Moreover, IJR Plumbing and Heating has also recently added a new van to the crew. With this new van, better availability can be expected!

The engineers at IJR Plumbing and Heating are highly qualified and trained to deal with any situation at hand. Multiple teams at IJR Plumbing and Heating handle tasks of varying complexities; the teams work in domestic, industrial, commercial, and construction sectors.

In addition to that, the company itself is also fully insured and is GasSaferegistered. Holding expertise in plumbing, boiler installation, power flushing, bathroom installation, boiler servicing, and other such tasks, IJR Plumbing and Heating is highly trusted among their customers old and new.

A business will be judged by the reviews left by their customers, IJR Plumbing and Heating receives tones of positive reviews and feedback. One such happy customer says “Ilan arrived promptly when expected and worked very tidy and meticulously. Skirting boards removed pipes fired and ran through the house and into the conservatory. Long radiator fitted. Extremely tidy and an amazing job, very pleased. Would highly recommend it. Thank you.”

A representative from the company states “We pride ourselves to deliver the best quality boiler installation and heating work we can provide. We promise to deliver excellent customer service and high-quality work for landlords and homeowners. We have an excellent reputation as one of the most trusted boilers and heating engineers in Hertfordshire and the surrounding areas.” The company is keen on helping people with their issues related to plumbing and heating. And this passion, drive, enthusiasm, and trust are what make IJR Plumbing and Heating highly likeable.
