Ranked among the nation's most integrated healthcare systems, Indianapolis-based Community Health Network is Central Indiana's leader in providing convenient access to exceptional healthcare services, where and when patients need them—in hospitals, health pavilions, and doctors' offices, as well as workplaces, schools, and homes.

As a non-profit health system with more than 200 sites of care and affiliates throughout Central Indiana, the Community's full continuum of care integrates hundreds of physicians, specialty and acute care hospitals, surgery centers, home care services, MedChecks, behavioral health, and employer health services.

Born and raised in India, Dr. Chintaparthi graduated with his Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery degree from Kurnool Medical College in India in 2002. Upon relocating to the United States, he served his residency in internal medicine at Pennsylvania Hospital in 2012, and his fellowship in endocrinology, diabetes, and metabolism at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics in 2014.

A Fellow of the American College of Endocrinology (FACE), Dr. Chintaparthi is board-certified in endocrinology, diabetes, and metabolism & internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Furthermore, he is board-certified in obesity medicine by the American Board of Obesity Medicine (ABOM). The ABOM is a 501 nonprofit, self-appointed physician-evaluation organization that certifies physicians practicing obesity medicine.

Endocrinology is a branch of biology and medicine dealing with the endocrine system, its diseases, and its specific secretions known as hormones. Endocrinologists have the training to diagnose and treat hormone imbalances and problems by helping to restore the normal balance of hormones in the body. The common diseases and disorders of the endocrine system that endocrinologists deal with include diabetes mellitus, as well as adrenal, pituitary, and thyroid disorders, among others.
