

Join the Musical Journey with The Caffeine Rush and Their Latest Track 'Looking Back'

Hailing from Maryland, The Caffeine Rush is making a huge buzz with their latest track 'Looking Back'. The single is enriched with alternative rock flavors.

Baltimore, Feb 4, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Stylish guitar outpouring and a harmonically rich vocal tone have united in the latest single 'Looking Back' by The Caffeine Rush. This alternative rock band has done an amazing job in composing this track that has a perfect blend of freshness and familiarity. Enriched with organic elements like beats of drums and stunning strumming sessions, the track provides a major hook along with creativity and clarity. The vocalist has stirred the emotions of the listeners with his soothing voice and deeply emotive lyrics. The song is like a subtle lamentation for a long lost heartbroken friend or looking back to the past and regrets.

Hailing from Maryland, this band was initially formed by Kevin Sullivan and Jake Shriner to support Kevin's solo EP, titled 'Daylight Rising'. It was formed under the mentorship of Allen Jones of Rock Haven Records. Later on, lead guitarist Joe Olszewski was added to the group to complete the band and provide the listeners something extraordinary. Their united musical effort can be felt through the latest track 'Looking Back'.

During the period of lockdown regarding the Global pandemic, this band launched a podcast on Spotify, named Caffeine in Quarantine. It was re-launched as Caffeine & Self Esteem. Currently, this band is looking forward make more alternative rock tracks in the coming days of 2021. With their prolific musicianship, the band is paving their way broader in the music industry. Follow The Caffeine Rush over Spotify, Facebook, and Instagram to know more about their upcoming projects and musical activities.

Visit to listen this song 'Looking Back' by The Caffeine Rush:

<https://open.spotify.com/track/7I1xQ6gfTZ16pqwfC5tp3x>

Media Contact

The Tunes Club

info@thetunesclub.com

Source : The Caffeine Rush

See on IssueWire