

Luke Goss Releases His First Single After 25 Years Break From Music Industry

Luke Goss, an ex-member of popular eighties band BROS and 7-time platinum sensation, has announced a new single, "FREE" after nearly 25 years of a long break from the music industry.

United Kingdom, London, Feb 2, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Luke Goss has announced his return to music by releasing a new single titled "FREE" on the 11th of December 2020. At present, Luke was releasing a new single as a solo artist, after nearly 25 years of absence from his music career and focused his career in film as an actor and director in the past two decades. Luke's new single is now available worldwide on iTunes, Spotify, Deezer, Apple Music, Amazon Music, and Pandora.

Luke Goss is a London-based actor, singer, and songwriter. Luke has loyal fans around the world who are always looking forward to his new work. Luke has been known as a member of the popular eighties band BROSS and his role in several Hollywood movies like Hellboy II, Blade II, and many of his cinematic accomplishments. Luke's new single "FREE" is an alternative pop song that has a Latin twist and provides a moody anthem for modern society.

The track "FREE" was recorded during the lockdown in Los Angeles. Luke has a unique approach to writing lyrics. Luke expresses his creativity on the new track in beautiful compositions of Latino-style instruments and joyful percussion snatches. On the new song, Luke has collaborated with well-known music producer Lugo Gonzalez. Lugo Gonzalez is one of the prominent producers in the music industry who has worked with many famous artists like Janet Jackson, Madonna, and Ricky Martin.

"Recording under my name let me open my wings musically in a way, it feels like my first free musical expression" - Luke.

Besides releasing the long-awaited track, Luke Goss also released a captivating music video of his new single "FREE". The video was taken in Joshua Tree, Southern California, and directed by himself. As an actor with vast experience in Hollywood, he has well-presented the Black and White music clips reminiscent of a remarkable Clint Eastwood Classic.
