

Ms. Pennsylvania 2004 Maria Frisby, a Recipient of a Royal Letter in 2019, Reached out to Staff at Hospitals in the USA

Maria Frisby, a former Ms. Pennsylvania 2004 and founder of her group Angels of Mercy, reached out to doctors, nurses and other medical staff at hospitals in the USA after hearing how COVID-19 & its fatalities are affecting the staff at the hospitals.

Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, Feb 18, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Maria Frisby, who is a former Ms. Pennsylvania 2004 and founder of her group Angels of Mercy, sent postcards to doctors, nurses, and medical staff in the ER and ICU units at hospitals in the USA after hearing about the staff being overwhelmed due to COVID-19 and its fatalities. Maria thanked the doctors, nurses and medical staff and told them that they are true heroes. She also told them that they are loved by many people. Maria graduated from Penn State University. She was a Miss America judge at a Miss America preliminary pageant in 2017 in York, PA. In 2019, she received a royal letter from Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan of Buckingham Palace. She reaches out to the sick, disabled, elderly and homeless through a group she founded called the Angels of Mercy. This was also her platform during her reign as Ms. Pennsylvania in 2004. She gives stuffed animals and hugs to the sick, disabled, and elderly at facilities to spread love and brighten their days no matter their race, nationality, creed or skin color. She gives stuffed animals and hugs to people in parks, on sidewalks or in parking lots to spread love and brighten their days no matter their race, nationality, creed or skin color. She helped Hurricane Matthew victims in Lumberton, N.C. She reached out to the homeless, sick, disabled and elderly in PA, Miami, Orlando, Los Angeles and in other cities and states as well. She reached out to the indigent in Nigeria. She is a walking miracle after surviving life-threatening sepsis/septicemia and a 108 degree body temperature. She was interviewed and filmed for an upcoming tv documentary. She also did a MELTDOWN the Film Photoshoot for the upcoming movie MELTDOWN, Based on True Events.

Media Contact

Ms. Pennsylvania 2004_Angels of Mercy

mariafrisbymspa2004@icloud.com

Source : Ms. Pennsylvania 2004 Maria Frisby

See on IssueWire