

Musical Chameleon Lab Spitta Releases a Hard-Hitting Single 'Couldn't Leave The Trap'

The hip hop rising star Lab Spitta growls with the same intensity with glorious trap beats to fabricate a raw and grasping music release called 'Couldn't Leave The Trap'.

Philadelphia, Feb 8, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The upcoming hip hop artist Lab Spitta doesn't know how to stop grinding even after spotting the pinnacle of his music career. No matter how many hits he has embellished or how many crowns he has achieved with his savvy lyrical blasts, he continues to ripe his experiences with the struggles he endured in the past. His new single 'Couldn't Leave The

Trap is an exceptional work in respect of his creative freedom. His suave charisma is fused with cold croons and beguiling sound effects of a heavy bassline. The groovy trap-infused beats will create a hypnotic ambiance for the new hip hop music lovers.

Lab Spitta is an internationally acclaimed rap artist who has made several platinum hits in the last decade. His creative exposure is broadened by the wrath of his articulation in the new hip hop song 'Couldn't Leave The Trap'. His aggression drives him to concentrate on the shortcoming of his life. His calculative reflexes help him bringing the best version of his artistry through the ruthless, raw representations. The song is weaved with sensitive words to criticize the lumpen movements around the city. His freedom of fusing genre-bending rhythms has redefined the art in the hip hop market. The different vocals feature his ability to melt boundaries of his prowess, making it difficult to glance over his versatility.

He started the music career with his birth name Brandon DeSean Sanders, soon taking his stage name to control the industry audaciously. With the massive list of compositions as "Love Me", and "Paul Pierce", he captures the interests of high profile music producers. He comes back with a high-end music production company Grand Gang Management to occupy a rock-solid space in the industry. He always searches for motivations to keep him busy with words that can unravel his mysterious mind with notable grooves. He has signed a new distribution deal with AWAL & Kobalt Music Group in 2021.
