Florida, Tampa, Feb 4, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Rock Out Against Bullying is a music event raising awareness of the bullying and teen suicide epidemic in America. Charity donations from the event will be distributed to the NFL Alumni Association and The Boys and Girls Clubs of America programs to fund these programs and to assist with COVID-19 pandemic programs.

Boys and Girls Club of America, NFL alumni, sports celebrities, and musical artists will provide public service announcements, social media interactions, media appearances, and press releases to help raise awareness of Rock Out Against Bullying, a Not for Profit 501C3 organization under the internal revenue code. Rock Out Against Bullying has implemented a series of events that will be streamed across numerous platforms to reach millions of viewers.

Rock Out Against Bullying Tour is a 10-show series. The series kicks off with the 1st and 2nd show in Tampa, FL for Super Bowl Week. The show curator CFO John Holder says that Tampa FL Super Bowl Week was one of the best and largest means to distribute their message and come together with Community Ambassadors to acknowledge and address issues in the living area. Where else can you congregate and be Covid Safe but the Tampa During the Super Bowl? The safety precautions that they are taking is painstaking but much needed. We're doing everything to make sure we have a sanitary and Covid Free event.

The 10-show series kicked off on February 5th, 2021 from 4-9 pm EST at Avalon Event center 10051 West Hillsborough Avenue Tampa, FL 33615.

Friday, February 5th Lineup is: Mulatto, Supa Bossanova, Prince Arkaveli, Manuvelli, YB Jugo, Bottom Boys, Mr. Bomb Skwad, Third World Don, Jimmy Bolt, Luvaboy TJ, Crim Diggla, YB Jugo, DJ Necterr and many more!
