New York, New York City, Feb 25, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Robinson is a board-certified podiatric surgeon and a member of the American Podiatric Medical Association*. She started Meridian Podiatry to fulfill the need for high-quality foot and ankle care in the Jacksonville, Florida area.

Dr. Robinson is proficient in all aspects of podiatric medicine and surgery, including minimally invasive surgical techniques and regenerative medicine.

Some of the services that she offers include minimally invasive surgery, stem cell therapy, dermal fillers, shockwave therapy, vascular testing, swift therapy for warts, KeryFlex nail restoration, steroid injections, skin substitute grafts, on-site X-ray, custom-molded orthotics, subtalar implants for flat feet, and diabetic foot care. She has a particular focus on the management of complicated lower extremity wounds and limb salvage in patients with diabetes.

Dr. Robinson earned her Doctorate in Podiatry from the Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine in 2014 and completed three years of residency training in podiatric medicine and surgery at Wyckoff Heights Medical Center in Brooklyn, New York.

She has been consistently involved in community outreach initiatives from the time of her undergraduate studies at the Southern Adventist University in Collegedale, TN until the present. She is passionate about giving back to the community and believes everyone should have access to quality podiatric care.

Podiatry is a branch of medicine devoted to the study, diagnosis, and medical and surgical treatment of a variety of disorders of the foot, ankle, and lower extremity. A podiatrist, also known as a podiatric physician or a foot and ankle surgeon, is a medical professional devoted to the treatment of disorders of the foot, ankle, and lower extremities. They can treat injuries and complications from ongoing health issues like diabetes. The American Board of Podiatric Medicine exists to offer podiatric physicians comprehensive board qualification and certification.

In her free time, Dr. Robinson enjoys exploring the beautiful Jacksonville area with her husband and their two adorable dogs, Bailey and Brewster.
