

Seqnce has released "Slimenese 2"

Dyamontae Sang-Walker is on the rise

British Columbia, Surrey, Feb 6, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - “Slimenese 2” is Seqnce’s Newest single as a full-time artist and the introduction to his inspired sound, dubbed as “Slimenese”. Since partnering up with Vancouver’s own artist Kxzanna, Seqnce has completely revamped his style and image. Seqnce takes a familiar sound from Atlanta and combines it with his own set of harmonies and fast flows to develop a truly unique sound.

“Slimenese 2” allows the listener to get a deeper look into Seqnce’s life inspirations which is evident in songs like “Slimenese” and none other than “Talk it Out” which features heartfelt and powerful vocals by Seqnce and Baby Ray, a young up and coming prodigy out of Toronto, Ontario, while seqnce hails from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In the single, Seqnce also shows off his fun and light-hearted side on a song that displays his versatility and interchangeable personality. Known for his versatility, Seqnce has never been afraid to venture into different genres which he shows in all of his singles. Every song put out by Seqnce was produced in his house and mixed by himself.
