

SINTALES is the latest mobile gacha ARPG game coming February 2021

California, Santa Monica, Feb 2, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Global games publisher Game Storm recently announced the new free-to-play Action RPG SINTALES, which develop by Gods Flame, would be coming to the US and South East Asia on both Android and iOS in February 2021.

The game is set in a high fantasy world base on fairytales kingdoms and tells the tale of young treasure hunter Aurora who gets dragged into the mysterious world. Aurora will be exploring both the normal and dark side of those well-known fairytales.

The regional pre-registration phase for SINTALES has gone live on their official website (www.sintales.com). Those who preregister will be obtaining extra in-game rewards when the game comes to life.
