

SOM House One Signs New Players To Roster!

The Atlanta based E-Sports brand has recently signed its first players!

Georgia, Atlanta, Feb 2, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - SOM House One has been making strides in the E-Sports industry since its launch in December of 2020. Since its initial launch, SOM House One has been focusing on the Gamer and the Gamer Experience. With a full concept in mind of what direction will be going in CEO Rueben Wood has signed his first player to the E-Sports company!

James Stokes a.k.a. J Da Proph3t, is the companies leading player with a focus on Call Of Duty and the online player tournaments. The new signing comes as no surprise with all of the momentum coming behind the brand as it continues to grow and become a new hub for Atlanta's rising gaming community. James is an avid player of PVP games and ranked in the top leader board for Next Gen PS5 networks for Activision's Call Of Duty. Call Of Duty is one of the key interests of SOM House One, as it plans to enter tournaments with its roster of players for 2021 and create online tournaments as a brand and outlet for players of the popular title.

SOM House One is the latest venture of entrepreneur Rueben Wood. The company focuses on Esports and Game Development with its first game currently in development stages. With an ever growing need for entertainment during the pandemic, Wood has been able to recapture audiences through Virtual and Socially Distanced Tournaments.

The key focuses of the brand is to create community based events, a space for players, an official team, and a nationwide tour to name a few. With Esports on its rise, there has been no secret that teams online are signing with companies and brands for more exposure and bigger pots from competitions. SOM House one has set its course for 2 popular titles and Game Brands, being, NBA2k and Call Of Duty, two of the most popular game title series to date. Getting into the gaming industry started for Wood back in 2014 with popular console XBOX by Microsoft. Since then, Wood has been an ambassador for XBOX and the XBOX Live community. Pro Gamers from all over will now have the opportunity to work with the Georgia based brand and its owner on upcoming tournaments and gaming projects!

Visit: <https://www.somhouseone.com>

Media Contact

SOM House One

somhouseone@gmail.com

818-495-5046

Source : SOM House One

See on IssueWire