

The Future Of Learning : Xpert has come up with a solution to learn Effective and Best from the Field Experienced Expert

When we understood academic learning is not enough...

Maharashtra, Pune, Feb 8, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Xperts has Introduced a new social learning platform that has changed the definition of Social Media. Xpert is designed to get what matters to a learner while learning the particular domain, Xpert emphasis what matters more in life and bring the world together.

Fundamental Keys Of Xperts.

- Follow Your Passion: Choose from a list of over 22+ professions based on your preference.
- Choose your Idols: Select from over 320+ experts, whom you wish to follow and learn from.
- Learn from the Best: Learn from their success, failure, struggle, tricks, opinions, and advice.

Xpert, a platform with a knowledge database of all that world's best have spoken about. We believe everyone should learn from the best be it by gaining inspiration from their journeys, learning their techniques, or staying updated on their achievements. We have only the best here who share their hands-on experience to empower you to make better career moves.

- We are not your regular online course, but rather an experience that is beyond regular classes, lectures & assignments. We only have the best to inspire you.
- We have India's top experts across each profession share their experiences, opinions, techniques & advice accumulated over the lifetime of their careers.
- We thrive on the ecosystem of experiential learning that academic courses are not enough and one needs to have exposure to real-life learnings to nail their careers.

The advertisement is divided into three main sections. On the left, a grid of 20 small portraits of diverse professionals is shown, with the text 'Making Xperts Accessible' overlaid. The central section is a large black box with an orange border, titled 'Why Xpert?' with a large orange 'X' icon. It lists three bullet points: 'Transform Idols into Teachers.' (Discover their journeys, challenges and opinions.), 'Stay updated Real-time.' (Receive news and interviews of your idols instantly.), and 'Ask your Questions.' (Get experts to answer your questions.). On the right, a smaller black box contains text about Xpert being India's first and only platform for interacting with celebrities, with a link to a chat with Shahrukh Khan. Below this text are three portraits of celebrities and the 'XPERT' logo with a 'get it on Google Play' badge.
