Get to know Dermatologist Dr. Valerie L. Huls, who serves patients in Goodyear, Arizona.

New York, New York City, Feb 9, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - A skilled and attentive dermatologist, Dr. Huls has practiced at U.S. Dermatology Partners Goodyear since 2008. Her primary focus is skin cancer, acne, eczema, psoriasis, and rosacea.

U.S. Dermatology Partners Goodyear, formerly Beatrice Keller Clinic Goodyear, is a full-service West Valley dermatology clinic in Goodyear, Arizona. The board-certified dermatologists working there specialize in general dermatology, surgical dermatology, and cosmetic treatments. They treat a wide range of skin conditions, including acne, psoriasis, eczema, skin cancer, and more.

Academically, Dr. Huls obtained her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the College of Osteopathic Medicine at Kansas City University of Medicine and Biosciences in 2001. Upon graduation, she completed her residency in dermatology at Sun Coast Hospital in Largo, Florida in 2006.

In practice for over two decades, the doctor is board-certified through the American Osteopathic Board of Dermatology, an organization that provides board certification to qualified Doctors of Osteopathic Medicine who specialize in the medical and surgical treatment of disorders of the skin.

In order to stay up to date in her field, Dr. Huls remains an active member of the American Academy of Dermatology and the American Osteopathic Association. She is also affiliated with Abrazo Arrowhead Campus.

Dermatology is the branch of medicine dealing with the skin, the largest organ of the body; a specialty with both medical and surgical aspects. A dermatologist is a specialist doctor who manages skin diseases and deals with both internal and external causes and some cosmetic concerns involving the skin. Dermatological duties include taking consultations, providing screening tests, and undertaking non-invasive surgical procedures.

During her off time, Dr. Huls enjoys hiking, gardening, and being a mom.
