

“A galaxy far, far away.” – Into the galaxy of sequins, tulle, glam and glitter!

The second edition of the Bangalore Fashion Saga has wrapped up on the 27th of February at the Novotel, Sarjapur.

Karnataka, Bengaluru, Mar 4, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The second edition of the Bangalore Fashion Saga has wrapped up on the 27th of February at the Novotel, Sarjapur. The event was organized by Fashionflamez who aims to promote talent, associated brands, and designer's acuity through its events in Bengaluru.

The event featured 7 designers including Ratna Mal (Beautik Fashions) among many others who have taken ramp by storm with all the fabulous looks that they have served. Jincy Satish Founder of Fashion Flamez said, “We experienced how much of an impact our platform made in the first edition, and was motivated by the support and response, and we are back with the second edition this year. “

Shining a spotlight on Bangalore's creative designers who designed exclusive and trendsetting collections, the general theme of the show was fresh, eclectic, and vibrant.

Beautik took the theme 'Into the Galaxy' and made it downright heavenly, with voluminous galactic ball gowns, celestial headdresses, and a whole slew of party dresses that say "starry night". It was a galaxy-inspired collection and a star-swirled culture collection by designer and entrepreneur, Ratna Mal.

“Galactic designs look so incredible because they blend beautiful hues of color and include glittery, shimmering details.” Ratna Mal explains.

Ratna is a Fashion designer from IIFT Bangalore who is following her passion and is known to plan and develop fashion ranges in accordance with clients’ requirements. At the Bangalore Fashion Saga, Ratna showcased her collection focusing on the pure beauty of the universe in her designs. Let's take a look at some of the most out-of-this-world ensembles that have us dreaming of the Universe and beyond.
