Get to know Pediatrician Dr. Donna Queyquep, who serves patients in Mount Vernon, Washington.

New York, New York City, Mar 25, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Queyquep is a trusted pediatrician who sees patients at Skagit Regional Clinics - Riverbend in Mount Vernon, Washington. She is part of a multi-specialty team of healthcare professionals serving northwest Washington, dedicated to serving with compassion and respect, one patient at a time.

Back in 2001, Dr. Queyquep obtained her medical degree from the University of the Philippines College of Medicine. She then went on to perform her rotating internship in pediatrics at Philippine General Hospital, and her residency in pediatrics at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center at Amarillo, completing her training in 2006.

In addition to being a Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics (FAAP), she is board-certified in pediatrics by the American Board of Pediatrics (ABP). The mission of the ABP is to advance child health by certifying pediatricians who meet standards of excellence and are committed to continuous learning and improvement.

Pediatrics is the branch of medicine that involves the medical care of infants, children, and adolescents. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends people be under pediatric care up to the age of 21. Pediatricians provide medical care to people ranging in age from newborns to young adults. They are trained to examine, diagnose, and treat children with a wide variety of injuries and illnesses through all of their developmental stages, as they grow and mature.

In honor of her clinical expertise, Dr. Queyquep is the recipient of the Patients' Choice Award (2008, 2009) and Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2014).
