

Fosteranime is an anime blogging website.

Maharashtra, Dombivli, Mar 27, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Fosteranime is an all about anime website where you can see all types of anime blogs. If you want more knowledge about anime shows like dragon ball super, Boruto, demon slayer, death note, etc.

The anime represents a beautiful, different, and profound art. Perhaps you meant or felt. In other cultures, they mention Japanese animations as anime. It is often said that the term anime originally refers to animations made by Japan and maybe a name for addressing them and separating them from other animations.

1 Death Note

The death note is an interesting anime series because the story of the series is unique. I don't want to give spoilers about it so, I'll tell you in short. The story starts with a young boy going to a high school he's bored with regular life. His name is Light Yagami. He found the Death Note and that book can kill anyone by just writing a name and with an image of a person in the user's mind. God of death "Shinigami" is the devil behind death.

2 Dragon Ball Z

Dragon ball z or dbz is a top anime. One of the best anime of all time. The write of dbz is Akira Toriyama. The story starts with a person name Goku living a peaceful life with his wife and kid. Goku is a world martial arts champion. After few years, he understands he is not a human. He is an alien but lost his memory due to a head injury. Many enemies came to destroy the earth but Goku and Z fighters protected it with their life on the line. I personally recommend this because it's also my favorite anime.

3 Attack on titans

This series is about a boy named Eren Jaeger, who vows to destroy all the enormous humanoid Titans on earth after they destroyed his hometown and kill his mother. He joins the military to protect the walls from the titans. It's a much more violent series than others. The overall story is nice and the plus point is there are very few episodes in it. If you are a busy person and want to watch an anime then attack titans is perfect for you.

4 Naruto

Naruto anime is all about ninjas. There is a village hidden in the leaf called Konoha village. The demon called nine Tail is inside naruto's body so everyone hates him because everyone thinks he is a monster. His determination, dedication, Etc change everyone. Are you going to give up on your dreams? Want motivation? I recommend you to watch naruto.

5 Demon Slayer

There are 26 episodes of demon slayer on Netflix. Season 2 is coming in 2021. The story starts with a young boy name Tanjiro his family was killed by a demon, and his sister Nezuke turned into a demon. He decided to kill every demon and protect his sisters and make her human again. Tanjiro joins the Demon Slayer group to take his revenge.
