

JayaLesedi becomes a groundbreaking music artist with upbeat R&B track ‘PLAY’

The influential Georgia female RnB singer JayaLesedi comes out from her common music chamber to impress the global audience with her latest innovative track ‘PLAY’.

Georgia, Atlanta, Mar 5, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Love is Universal. The Georgia female RnB singer JayaLesedi expresses the message that everyone should know great love. Everyone wants to experience love and we all play off each other to share that love.

She just tried to spellbind her loyal fans and critics with honest songwriting and crushing instrumental melodies in the latest track 'PLAY'. The glittery atonal vibes in her celestial vocals sound romantically connected to the current scene. Her dizzy falsetto smoothly climbs higher as prominently as she climbs the charts with the new song. She gives out an irreplaceable performance with stunningly acquired vocals in the middle of the verses to nurture her passionate feelings. She cares a lot about the world and tries to heal the sentimental pangs through her deftly composed singles. The latest track has a sparkling chorus that explains her versatility in her art. The constant change in her music orientation helps her to grow globally adapting to the evolved setting of the American music industry.

JayaLesedi has grown up under the shade of a musical lineage that has always pushed her to try her luck in the creative world. Her concept of R&B melodies comes from the cultural enrichment of her family. She belongs to an Indian American family grounded in musical roots. Her close relations with African culture have influenced her to have liberal views towards her music. She pours her saccharine feelings into her songs and mixes them with the trendiest sounds found on this planet. Her grown and sexy version sculpts the gritty compositions with more layers. She started making music at an early age to disclose her feelings and poetry with the rhythms of her soul.

The young and talented female artist returns with a new light, a new song 'PLAY', to share her story with her fans. It captures a new version of her charming personality. She is adored for the smooth funk vibes and good music production she injected into it. Her divine vocals fill the room with strange energy creating a warm nostalgia. She will leave you in limbo with the pure energy she shares through the fresh R&B hooks. She was raised to prominence with the solid R&B hits like 'Move With Me' and 'if you could feel me'.
