

Leawo just Released Prof. Media for Mac 8.3.1 by adding a new Cinavia Module

Leawo just released an updated all-in-one multimedia solutions package - Leawo Prof. Media for Mac 8.3.1. The program came out with a new feature that could remove Cinavia protection to greatly improve user's experience.

Guangdong, Shenzhen, Mar 23, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Leawo Software, a company specialized in multimedia solutions and data management software, just rolled out Prof. Media for Mac 8.3.1 with a major update that added a new Cinavia module to help people remove Cinavia protection on Blu-ray.

As a professional media converter suite, Leawo Prof. Media for Mac could act as DVD/Blu-ray ripping and backup software to rip copy-protected Blu-ray in multiple formats and copy DVD movies to computer or blank disc for backup. Also, it could perform as Blu-ray/DVD creator to burn video to Blu-ray/DVD disc, folder, or ISO files easily. Its built-in video editor enables people to trim and crop video, add video watermark, adjust video effect, and apply the 3D effect with ease. Featuring an online video downloader, Leawo Prof. Media for Mac could actually download online videos from YouTube, Facebook, and 1000+ other sites.

The key upgrades of Prof. Media for Mac 8.3.1:

- Added a new Cinavia module.
- Added an icon to the main title.
- Solved the problem that some BDAV discs could not be loaded normally.
- Optimized to take sub-display with highlighted Menu bar as startup display.
- Fixed some bugs.

Now with the new Cinavia module built-into Leawo Prof. Media for Mac, people can perfectly eliminate the Cinavia protection with ease. Leawo Blu-ray Cinavia Removal for Mac is a professional and all-in-one Cinavia removal program that is capable of permanently removing Cinavia protection with 6X higher speed.
