Kissimmee, Mar 24, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Captivating the listeners with an upbeat musical arrangement, Armando Luna is come up with the authentic flavors of Salsa and Merengue music. Pouring down a hefty dose of native music from the Dominican Republic, the artist's musical representations are enticing enough to make the listeners groove and move. The artist has released an album named 'Tiene Sabor' that consists of eleven chart-busting tracks like 'Catalina', 'Soy el Merengue', 'Te Amo', etc to name some. Each of the tracks portrays his talent, musical creativity, and prolific musicianship qualities. He has also released a single named 'Black Magic Woman' is English track that showcases the artists' amazing hold of both languages, Spanish and English.

Hailing from Domingo in the Dominican Republic, this artist developed his love for music at a very young age and nurtured his musical skills as he grew up. Although the artist started his journey by playing piano and percussion elements, he always shared his true passion for singing. At the age of 20, the artist moved to the United States with his love and skills for Dominican native music. The artist has released his debut album named "Homenaje a los Grandes" which was his first-ever solo musical project.

Later on, Armando kept his musical flow ongoing and crafted more tracks with his singing and songwriting skills. Reworking on the singles of that album made him come up with the latest album 'Tiene Sabor' which is providing him world recognition.
