

Shoessee Now Revamps The Appearance And Functions Of Its E-Commerce Store

To avail easy and attractive deals and discounts on a plethora of ladies' sandals, the site has revamped its overall look.

Hong Kong S.A.R., Hong Kong, Apr 1, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Specialists in women's shoes, Shoessee has made a massive transformation in the site's overall look. The name of the store is an enviable one among the numerous fashion stores procuring quality products. Now that the company has re-designed the outlook and included extra categories for ease in locating different shoes, customers are expected to make a beeline for their collections.

The company has collaborated with website designers and chosen effective color shades that sync well with the logo. "We pay foremost attention to how customers would connect with us, which is why we have worked so hard on the site. For buyers who wish to choose flat shoes for women, for example, now the section is not only well segregated from the others; but also comes with extra information about the pair and the shoes in general. The idea was to impart knowledge of footwear and not merely initiate sales. As of now, we have received positive responses, which we believe will only increase with the passage of time," said a marketing executive of the company.

While most e-commerce platforms keep a host of women's products along with accessories like bags and shoes, this footwear site is a sharp deviation from the rest. "In fact, that is where our USP lies. We have kept our stronghold on shoes and specialize in minimalist sandals for ladies, apart from the usual sneakers, wedges, platform heels, and more," added the executive.

In a recent press meet, the CEO of the company said, "We take immense pride in our employees who continue with their brainstorming sessions timely, so as to help more customers find the best of shoes on our site. The competition will increase furthermore and we have to keep ourselves updated on what we provide. But from the experience gathered, it must be conveyed that half the job is done if the initial look is a winner and that is a major reason behind the team's dedicated approach. We hope buyers continue shopping with us like always."
