

Spin And Shake Launches Their Virtual Cocktail Making Class on Zoom

Leading London-based professional bartender services providers, Spin And Shake, announces the launch of their virtual cocktail-making class to help unite friends, family, and colleagues

United Kingdom, London, Mar 15, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Spin And Shake have launched their virtual cocktail-making class for people who desire a unique and exciting way of bringing loved ones together, especially during the lockdown era. Participants will learn from the team of expert mixologists at Spin And Shake, as they teach the tricks and skills of making incredible cocktails and finding the perfect mix every time.

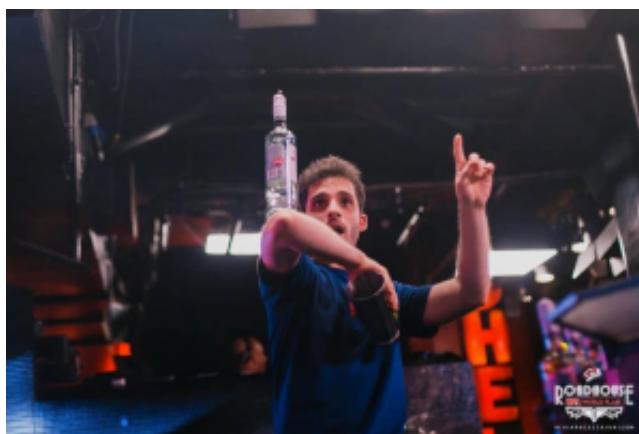

Cocktails have become increasingly popular in recent times, as more people across the globe seek to enjoy the relief that comes with every sip of their favorite beverage. A new report published by Grand View Research, Inc. predicts the global ready-to-drink cocktails market size to reach $1.63 billion by 2027. While there has been an influx of cocktail brands into the market in recent times, more consumers are beginning to demand homemade cocktails, which is where the initiative from Spin And Shake has come in particularly handy.

The Zoom cocktail class features a team of experienced and engaging mixologists teaching participants how to make different types of cocktails, including Passion Fruit Martini, Pina Colada, Bramble, Espresso Martini, Watermelon Gin Collins, French Martini, Passion Fruit Daiquiri, and Bubble Gum Margarita. The class is suited for all categories of gatherings, such as birthday, hen party, team building, or corporate event, especially as the drinks can also be made into mocktails. The virtual class is available in different levels to suit the budget of participants, with packages starting from £15pp.
