Virginia Beach, Mar 17, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Listen to the thematic and musical scope of Peso3x's new track, 'Take Flight'. The song's lyrical content takes both the artist and audience on a submerging journey of realization and contemplation. The song is observant in its characteristics as the rapper beautifully puts together his thoughts and creative resonance into its arrangement. The subject matter is an important component of the track that makes for an immersive depth in the area of contemporary, evolved hip hop. Through this song, he has not only broadened his vision as an artist but has also led the collective industry to experience his insights and eccentric ways.

The Virginia rapper hailing from Woodbridge considers music as a personal journey through which he reaches his gateway of closure and acceptance. This vision also gets reflected in the verses of 'Take Flight' as he unearths meaning and essence out of its themes through outstanding production and performance. Some of his biggest influences that shaped his sound into what it is today, include Tupac, Ne-Yo, Jill Scott, John Legend, Snoop Dogg, and more. The Chicago drill movement and wave that took over hip hop at one point was also instrumental in his process of becoming a full-time musician.

Artist Peso3x is focused and is constantly working with conviction to put his best foot forward. His other songs include, 'Passenger' and '219 Flow, Pt. 3'. A lineup of various song releases and subsequent project collaboration with Authentic Empire will open his gates to more opportunities. Some of his upcoming track releases include 'Trap March' on March 21st, 'Man with a plan' on April 9th, 'Red' on April 22nd, 'Tell me' on May 1st, 'On em' on May 15th, 'I said' on May 23rd, 'Jumanji' on June 4th, 'Miod' on June 18th, and 'All about' on July 2nd.
