

Aglío Named CFO of NetCentrics

Arrival Ushers in New Period of Expansion for Trusted Government Contractor

Virginia, Herndon, Apr 7, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - NetCentrics, an established leader in enterprise information technology, telecommunications, and cybersecurity, recently announced Holly Aglio as the company's new Chief Financial Officer. Ms. Aglio brings over 20 years of strategic business, financial leadership, and government contracting experience in technology products and services.

"NetCentrics is an established leader in enterprise IT. I'm pleased to join the company during the start of another growth surge. NetCentrics is investing heavily in emerging technologies, and I believe this will be key to delivering top-notch results for our customers," says Ms. Aglio.

The announcement comes as NetCentrics, a trusted government contractor for nearly 30 years, expands beyond its government customers to serve the private sector.

"We are investing heavily in top talent to ensure all of our customers benefit from the expertise necessary to compete in a rapidly changing world," says Lawrence O'Connor, NetCentrics' President. "Ms. Aglio is such talent because she combines proven business leadership skills and technical knowledge. As we move into complicated, regulated sectors such as healthcare, her expertise will guide strategic decisions that will support our customers' success."

Ms. Aglio joins the team from Govplace, Inc., where she was Chief Financial Officer. She has spent her career working in technology and consumer products companies in the Greater Capitol and Northern California Regions and has a degree in Accounting from the University of Virginia.
