

Alt-Pop Project Chords Of Eve Releases New Music Video + Charity Fund

New Music and Accompanying Video

Texas, Austin, Apr 16, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Sky Titan Media artist Chords Of Eve releases an epic new science fiction music video for their new song “Spinning” from the upcoming LP “Butterfly Machine”. The video will premiere at noon CST on April 16th, 2021 on the project's official Vevo channel as well as the Sky Titan Media Youtube Channel.

This song is a balance of hope and cynicism with an awareness of what has come before us and what could come after. It is the story about how the world, with all of the things people do to destroy it and each other, just keeps spinning. Fans of films/TV shows such as Moon, 2001: A Space Odyssey, and Raised By Wolves will love this new video.
