Somewhere along the line, all have to go through such a phase of selling old cars. That's why we have come up with the Best 5 Strategies to Keep Yourself Safe While Selling Car!! If you have been looking up for these tips, it's time not to look further & just dive into this article...

Schedule Meetings in Public Place

Are you planning to schedule a meeting with the potential buyer? If yes then, don't let the mistake of meeting in the wrong place become the reason for fraud!! Mark our words- Always meet with the buyer in a well-lit or remarkable area!! Parking areas & huge grocery shops should be nearby you. However, it decreases the risk of car theft & you will have more witnesses. Moreover, never call the car buyer right at your home, if you do so, ultimately that would be a criminal case in your home later on.

Always Accept Cash Payments

Most of the time, the would-be criminal tries to allure you by offering more dollars than your expectations. Think thoroughly over it how this is possible for this old or second-hand vehicle? It's nothing but the indication that they are trying to rip you off!! Be aware of such frauds. Additionally, you don't need to accept the check that could nothing but a bad check to gain your free car. Oh Yes!! Indeed, you have heard it right!!! Let them know that you will only accept cash. In case, you want to accept the cheque, do call a trusted bank for verifications of the find. However, don't put the keys in the hand of the buyer until you get the amount in the bank!!

Aware of Your Car's Worth

Most of the time, all privates' buyers often haggle about the price of the car. They can also tell you bald-faced lies that the car's worth is much lower than you think of!! In simple words, they will try to manipulate you but you have to be smart enough. But somewhere along the line, they will pay what you want if you can handle with smartly!! Moreover, they can also bring their mechanic & will say you that there are several issues. In this situation, get your car checked by some reliable mechanic. You can walk into the negotiations only after knowing the worth!!

Do Test-Drive Meeting Carefully-

It's obvious that potential buyers will ask for test-driving before getting off your car. But it can be the best opportunity for them to steal the vehicle. So, to overcome this situation, ask your friends to be with you & go along for the test drives. Additionally, you can also check the driving license & take a scanned copy of it in your hand. This way, you can scan their public records with a license for Criminal History Check!! This, in turn, will let you know whether to go test-drive or not...
