

David Anapolle, MD, an Orthopedic Surgeon with PACE Orthopedics

Get to know Orthopedic Surgeon Dr. David Anapolle, who serves patients in Somers Point and Cape May Court House, New Jersey.

New York, New York City, Apr 28, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Anapolle is a fellowship-trained, board-certified orthopedic surgeon specializing in sports medicine and arthroscopic surgery in patients of all ages. He works alongside Dr. Glenn Zuck at PACE Orthopedics, treating sports-related injuries, overuse injuries, and general orthopedic conditions.

With offices in Somers Point and Cape May Court House, PACE Orthopedics was the first sports medicine specialty practice in South Jersey and continues to provide a unique level of personalized care unmatched by any other group in the area. Drs. Anapolle and Zuck offer a wide variety of conservative and surgical options and procedures for the treatment of a variety of orthopedic ailments in the South Jersey area. They are committed to the belief that the same quality care provided to professional athletes be available to athletes of any level and age.

With a broad educational background, Dr. Anapolle graduated with his Bachelor of Arts degree from Cornell University in 1984. He then went on to earn his medical degree from Rutgers New Jersey Medical School in 1988, after which he completed his residency in orthopedic surgery at Seton Hall University School of Graduate Medical Education in 1993. Furthering his training, he performed a fellowship in sports medicine at The Orthopedic Specialty Hospital in Salt Lake City in 1994, where he worked with team physicians for the US Ski and Snowboard Association teams.

A Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons, the doctor is board-certified in orthopedic surgery and orthopedic sports medicine by the American Board of Orthopedic Surgery (ABOS). The ABOS is an organization with the goal of establishing educational and professional standards for orthopedic residents and surgeons as well as evaluating the qualifications and competence of orthopedic surgeons.

Having treated numerous elite athletes in a competitive environment, Dr. Anapolle has been a Team Physician for The Atlantic City Boardwalk Bullies professional hockey team and is an Orthopedic Consultant for the Stockton University Athletic Department. He also provides personalized care to local athletes of all ages.

Guiding patients through treatment and customized rehabilitation for complete recovery, he is affiliated with Shore Medical Center and Cape Regional Medical Center.

Orthopedic surgery is the branch of surgery concerned with conditions involving the musculoskeletal system. Orthopedic surgeons use both surgical and non-surgical means to treat musculoskeletal trauma, spine diseases, sports injuries, degenerative diseases, infections, tumors, and congenital disorders.

On a more personal note, Dr. Anapolle resides in Linwood with his wife and three children. In addition to caring for patients of all ages in the South Jersey community, he enjoys spending time with his family, skiing, going to the beach and participating in water sports.
