

Donna Snow, MD, an Internist in Private Practice

Get to know Internist Dr. Donna Snow, who serves patients in Staten Island, New York.

New York, New York City, Apr 29, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - A caring and trusted internal medicine and pediatric specialist, Dr. Snow works with patients at her private practice in Staten Island, New York. Her areas of expertise include fat reduction using the UltraSlim Therapy Procedure, body sculpting, mommy makeover, and non-invasive facelift.

UltraSlim is the only procedure approved for immediate fat reduction without dieting, pills, exercise, or surgery. It uses revolutionary light technology that is clinically proven to help an individual lose weight and keep it off.

At Donna Snow, MD, advanced laser therapy, ultrasound treatments, and radiofrequency treatments are used that can give the skin a refreshed, younger-looking appearance without pain, side effects, or downtime.

With a solid educational background, Dr. Snow graduated with her medical degree from the University Del Noreste Tampico Tamps Medical School in 1985. She then went on to complete her residency in pediatrics at the Brookdale University Hospital and Medical Center in New York City in 1990.

With nearly four decades of experience, she is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Licensed to practice medicine in New York and New Jersey, Dr. Snow holds medical privileges at Staten Island University Hospital.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
