

Eten Group Strengthens Australia / New Zealand Team With New Client Director

Japan, Tokyo, Apr 7, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Eten Group today announced the appointment of Mathew Stockdale as Client Director for its Australia & New Zealand wholesale business. Mathew is based in Australia and will report directly to the Head of Asian Distribution, Andrew Metcalf. Mathew joins the firm today.

In this role, Mathew will focus on business development and servicing local-based clients together with Andrew and the team. His appointment will further strengthen the Australia / New Zealand wholesale team and deepen relationships with financial institutions, family offices, private banks, wealth managers, discretionary fund managers, and advisers.

Mathew has more than 13 years' experience in sales and distribution within Australia's asset management industry. He was previously Senior Vice President with a large Australian Group for five years, where he launched, led, and managed the firm's business unit focused on distribution strategies to financial institutions and intermediaries in Australia & New Zealand.

Media Contact

Eten Group

info@etengroup.com

Source : Eten Group

See on IssueWire