BY ROBERT EMERY

United Kingdom, London, Apr 9, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - For famous Conductor and Music Producer Robert Emery, 2020 was going to be his busiest year yet. He had conducting performances lined up in America, Australia, New Zealand, Vienna, Germany, Switzerland, Japan, and China. Then Coronavirus happens.

We were all thrust into lockdown – no escape from our homes. His wife had a baby, and his four-year-old, Teddy was climbing the walls. Besides ‘being Dad’, he decided it was time to help his fellow musicians in their time of need, whilst not being allowed onto a stage.

Watching Teddy do his Violin practice, Emery remembered the idea of creating the ‘bible of musical instruments and music education’; and Ted's List was born.

All articles are written by world-class professionals in their field. Ted’s List has a roster of writers that include players in the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, London Philharmonic Orchestra, and National Symphony Orchestra to name but a few.

Launching early 2021, www.teds-list.com is THE go-to community if you need advice or reviews on anything related to music & instruments.
