

Florida's Newest Hip-Hop Music Producer: TTBeatz

Florida, North Miami, Apr 3, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Terell Torrence Jr, or as some of you may know him as music producer TTBeatz. He's one of the most buzzing, under-the-radar, music producers in Florida. He's worked with the likes of Raw Youngin, SpotemGottem, Blaze Carter, 808 Mafia, etc.

Born September 14, 2001, the 19-year-old music producer has a good reputation with artists from all over the Miami area and he's now spreading to the Jacksonville area because he's currently enrolled in Edward Waters College where he plays football for the Tigers and sports number 77.

We got to spend some time with TTBeatz this past fall when he visited his hometown of Miami in September for some studio sessions, to see what's up and what he's working on.

Q: "So what was it like growing up in Liberty City of Miami, and how did it affect your music career?"

A: "Well honestly, growing up in Miami, it was a struggle you know. I was fortunate enough to have my pops in my life and he's still here today, and he made sure I stayed on the right track but that doesn't mean everything was always easy. You know I watched my moms struggle to pay bills, some days the lights went off, some days the water was cold, and other days there were shootouts in the neighborhood close by. And at this time that's when I really started taking music seriously. I sat down and said to myself that this isn't the life I want for myself and my family."

Q: "So, I understand that you've worked with members of 808 Mafia and there were even rumors that you are a current member of 808 Mafia, can you confirm?"

A: "Um, all I will say about that is just keep watching my status in the future. But yes, I do work with various artists and producers from 808 Mafia. Raw Youngin, TraySav, and Wopskino World are all artists signed to 808 Mafia and I do work very closely with Big Venzo from 808 Mafia."

Q: "So who are some artists from Florida that you'd like to work with in the future?"

A: "From Florida? I'd like to work with Nardo Wick, Hotboii, GlokkNine, Taleban Dooda, and Brokeasf. Them boys hot right now, and I think we can make some hits if we ever link up."

So that was all the questions and time we got to spend with Torrence before he had to get back to his studio session at Audio Vision Recording Studios. But, from what I can tell TTBeatz definitely has the potential to be a true player in the game, and really soon everyone will know about him, I can't wait to see what the future hold for the young protégé.
