

GENERAL D Releases Two New Singles Presenting His Best Qualities

Artist GENERAL D highlights his magnetic aura and outstanding singing qualities in his newest songs that push his reputation to greater heights in the genre.

New Jersey, Bayonne, Apr 21, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Slowly but surely things are changing for the good in the dancehall space and credit goes to artists like GENERAL D who are contributing to the purpose with great conviction. The talented dancehall and reggae star draws his influence from Afro-beats, dancehall trap, and subtle elements of reggae that add a distinctive flavor to his contemporary style. Believing in the authenticity of his craft and pushing consistently to learn new elements, the artist didn't require learning new things but just polished his already-possessed skills.

Mixing enriched melodies with refreshing beats and meaningful lyricism, the singer-rapper has released two new singles 'Fake Frenz' and 'Jah You Alone' that work greatly to pull out his exclusive caliber and a strong mindset. The singles are catchy, melodic, and surprises fans with their unusual string of verses. The artist has exploited his creative freedom in the best way possible to gift the listeners an engaging listen. Having being bullied during his initial years, the artist strives to craft songs of positivity and offers a good time with his musicality.

Born and raised in Barbados, Dario Young aka GENERAL D is committed to creating fresh songs, and his two new singles 'Fake Frenz' and 'Jah You Alone' are weaved in a creatively fresh musical backbone to sound both sonically and lyrically fresh. The artist has infused dreamlike light dancehall melodies with contrasting reggae trap beats to support his vocal energy, and the outcome is truly addictive. Singing, goofing, and making attractive beats throughout his life, the artist always nurtured a deep passion for music and never restricted his creativity to just one genre.
