Andrena M. McGroarty, MSN, PMHNP-BC, a Board-Certified Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurse Practitioner with Mobile Physician Services

New York, New York City, Apr 5, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Andrena is a board-certified psychiatric-mental health nurse practitioner at Mobile Physician Services in New Port Richey, Florida.

Established in 2006, Mobile Physician Services is a practice of doctors, nurse practitioners, and physician assistants who make house calls to homebound patients. They specialize in delivering primary and specialty medical care for medically complex, chronically ill, and homebound patients. It is their mission to provide home-bound patients with access to compassionate patient-centered healthcare with excellence in quality and service.

Academically, Andrena graduated with her Bachelor of Science degree in Neuroscience from Oberlin College in 2005. Thereafter, she went on to earn her Master of Science in Nursing degree (PMHNP Program) from Yale School of Nursing in 2011.

A member of the American Psychiatric Nurses Association, she attributes her success to her passion for her specialty and continued learning.

A Board-Certified Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurse Practitioner (PMHNP-BC) is an advanced practice registered nurse trained to provide a wide range of mental health services to patients and families in a variety of settings. PMHNPs diagnose conduct therapy and prescribe medications for patients who have psychiatric disorders, medical organic brain disorders, or substance abuse problems. They are licensed to provide emergency psychiatric services, psychosocial and physical assessment of their patients, treatment plans, and manage patient care. They may also serve as consultants or as educators for families and staff.
