

HFL Magazine Goes Back To Its Roots With Independent Spotlights For Latest Issue

HFL Magazine, known for its fusion of celebrities and independent features, has opted for a completely independent issue focusing on rising stars, including its cover story Y.K. Supe.

Azure Radio features an all independent line up in their new X-Factor Edition just in time for Spring.

When questioned regarding the shift from the traditional fusion format the magazine is known for, Kevin Forrest, owner of the magazine had this to say, “HFL Magazine’s foundation is built on the entrepreneurial spirit, the independent drive to build a brand brick by brick. As we continue to work through the year leading up to our 10th-year anniversary issue in July, we wanted to take a moment to pay homage to those independent roots. The featured artists in the X-Factor edition exemplify what HFL is all about.”

The latest issue of HFL Magazine includes features with DeeJay Phenomenal 1 also known as P1, artist and producer Biig Miic, YGN Hip Hop artist Real Yung G and YKMG artist Y.K. Supe.
