

Houston film industry top-man is a full-time LA showrunner, producer. Alexis Robbie joins Hloyal Management And Pr.

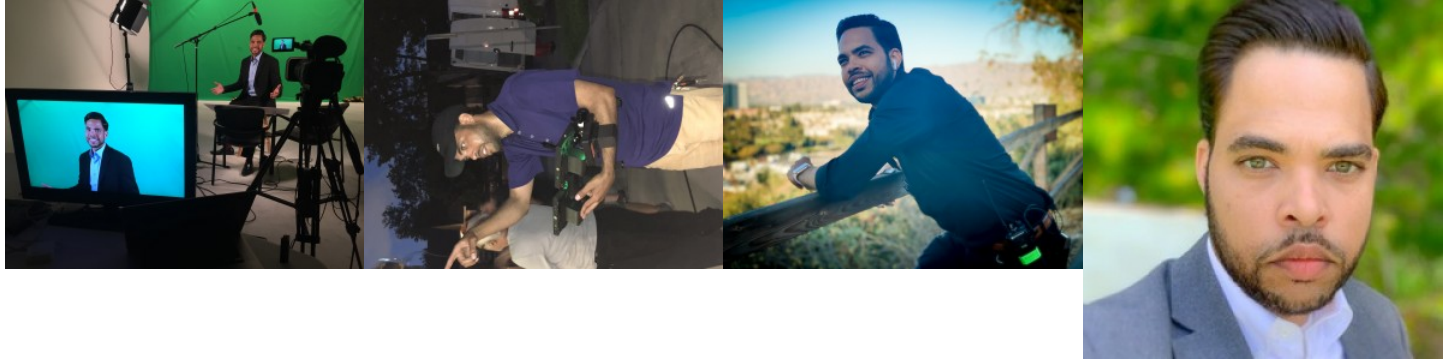

Houstonian Alexis Robbie is now working on the front lines in the Los Angeles film industry as a producer, showrunner. Working mainly unscripted, commercial, and music video with director Oscar Carrillo.

California, Los Angeles, Apr 21, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Alexis Robbie has a setting to focus on African American stories and ideas. This Houston film industry point man has been in-demand in Los Angeles for the last two years. With recent works as showrunner for television series Blue Chippers, Boss Bodies, Co-Parenting with the Scurlings. Handling corporate commercials for She's Happy Hair and producing music video "No Beef" for artist Blac Youngsta, "XYO" for Drumma Boy.

Doing more than just shining some much-needed light on another African American industry influencer but introducing a close colleague Director Oscar Carrillo to the full public. A telly award-winning and proud Latino is an Art Institute graduate and director, editor, and writing commercials for major brands like Sonic, Home Depot and who helped bring season one of The CW television series "Co-Parenting With The Spurlings." Also, Oscar is a partner with Alexis on a new business entity of which the Production company cannot disclose details at this time.

Already tasking their new management & public relations representation with some high-profile productions to pitch, Hloyal Management And Pr are excited for the business and the challenge.
