कल फिर धूप आएगी

Odisha, Bhubaneswar, Apr 13, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Releasing on 14th April 2021, Kal Phir Dhoop Aayegi is the second literary work by Himanshu. Last June, Himanshu debuted with his first collection of Hindi poems Khwaab Tootne Se Pahle, a bouquet of emotional love poems written during the nineties. Subsequently, he also published two eBooks on Amazon KDP - Mera Tamasha, a collection of Ghazals and songs, and Khichdi, a collection of blog-like casual writings, short stories, and a travelogue.

Kal Phir Dhoop Aayegi is another collection of his poems written during a time span of the last 30-35 years, beginning from 1986 through the changing millennia. It will take the readers on a rollercoaster ride through various emotions of love, passion, and ecstasy, apathy and frustration, anger and confusion, but finally, everything would culminate to determination and positivity. These refreshing poems will definitely touch the most sensitive chords of one's inner soul and leave the readers with a lingering feeling of assurance at the end.

These simple, sweet, and heart-touching poems are mirrors of everyday life. Reflections of childhood memories, uncertainties and confusions of adolescence, and many other emotions are all beautifully portrayed in these pages of Kal Phir Dhoop Aayegi. Emotional extremities, observations of tiny details, and bitter-sweet philosophy of everyday life expressed in some very simple, timeless lines, are the highlights of this collection. Readers will definitely be able to relate themselves to most of these pure emotions.

Easy Hindi, occasional but non-hesitant uses of Urdu and regional dialect, and even some English add up to the fine precision of expressions in Kal Phir Dhoop Aayegi. No other words seem to fit better than the ones used at a given juncture and their skillful placement only aids to the flow and continuity.

Born in Ranchi, India, Professor (Dr) Himanshu Narayan is a Full-Professor of Physics at the National University of Lesotho in Southern Africa. Even after staying abroad for more than seventeen years, and being engaged in hard-core Science for a living, he has never found himself disconnected from his roots. He still loves to express himself in Hindi, and with extreme pride!

प्रथम कविता-संग्रह: 'छात्र दूटने से पहले'.

न जाने कितने हर्फ और लफ्फ
और कितनी सारी बातें,
और किस्से, कहानियाँ,
दास्तान-ए-हकीकत,
असआर, रदीफ और काफिये...
राब के सब कैदी,
धुँधले अँधेरे के दखाने की ज़मीन,
दीवारों और
सलाखों से लगे,
लेटे, खड़े,
धुँ ही पड़े,
थके-थके से,
जागते, सोते, ऊँघते,
एक दूसरे को गालियाँ बकते.

यहीं है
कुछ लिख पाने की अबाध उल्लेख (बे-इन्तेहा हसरत),
और न लिख पाने की कठोर (बेरहम) यंत्रणा...
