

Mariah K Offers A Soft, Buoyant Debut that Mingles with Propulsive Beats and Sober Verses

The young Australian pop singer Mariah K offers a new combination of music that sabotages heartbreaks and disillusionment with the airy interactive pop songs.

New South Wales, Crookwell, Apr 23, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Indeed, the young pop stars make heartaches and disillusionments sound like a party but that is just emotionally harmful. That's why the upcoming Australian pop artist Mariah K returns to show her point with a musical saga in her debut album Journey. She released it on April 13 through Oceanic Records, one of the largest record labels in Crookwell. Her voice sinks in the composed and syncopated riffs of pop reverb in the song 'Living in the Moment'. She defines the cool norms of being on the other side of responsibilities and relationships. She confesses by outpouring her confused tales intertwined with her heart through the smart and pertinent lyricism. 'Your Eyes' shines in the bright blaze of her ethereal vocals blessed with rookie pop verses.

Mariah K comes from an ordinary family living in the small village of Crookwell. From the family's Greek café counter to the center of the music industry, she took an unusual flight counting her blessings for her dreams. When she was nine years old, she started understanding the concept behind the music. She eternally fell in love with shiny tunes and spontaneous grooves of pop music almost immediately. She continues to thrive on her presence in the local music scene with her dedication and passion for music. She was even featured on Rob Mill's "Homegrown Superstars" program, as well as on ABC Radio Canberra.

'Little Bird' is one of the greatest hits from her debut album Journey. She successfully presents that little chaos can be fun when it allows you to see beyond the surface. She infuses earworm bass lines with dreamlike verses in the new song 'Anything for You'. She applies the sweetness of her vocals and yarns for her connection to see her vulnerability.
