Florida, Hollywood, Apr 13, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Miami International Yacht Sales Proudly Announces the Launch of DutchCraft 56

After making a splash at the Cannes Yachting Festival, the groundbreaking model from the world-renowned Dutch builder is now available at Miami International Yacht Sales.

Miami International Yacht Sales, a leader in providing world-renowned yachts across South Florida with an international network of qualified brokers, has announced the launch of DutchCraft 56. The addition of the model to the company's elite collection of luxury yachts will enhance its global presence and provide yacht enthusiasts with thrilling choices. DutchCraft 56 is the ultimate all-purpose yacht that features John Deere engineering for the best sailing performance.

As a sister company of the well-known Zeelander Yachts, DutchCraft is a leader in the yacht building and manufacturing industry. Founded in 1977, the company has vast engineering and production facilities with excellent dutch craftsmanship to craft meaningful experiences for yacht owners. As a renowned builder of luxury sports cruises, DutchCraft is a family-owned and operated company with a presence in over 46 countries.

The contemporary construction of the interiors and exteriors that blew away the spectators at the Cannes Yachting Festival is a real game-changer in the market. The elegant appeal of the yacht has an open flybridge that lets viewers enjoy the surroundings. The pleasure vessel also offers various opportunities for sea-diving with a ladder and aft platform. DutchCraft has designed a comfortable ride for thrill-seekers and adventurers with a top speed of 40 knots and a high-performance hull structure to cut through the sea with ease.

Based in Miami, with an assembled network of international brokers, Miami International Yacht Sales represents a growing client base with an exclusive selection of mega yachts and superyachts. The company provides the highest quality service and connects yacht brokers with buyers across the globe. The main aim of the company is to deliver the best yacht acquisition experience to its clients with unmatched support and comprehensive yachting solutions. The company's presence reaches all of the USA, Canada, Latin America, Europe, China, and beyond.
