

Neezy Has Hit the Industry Hard with "Pressure," Showing No Bars Mercy!

Bar for Bar Who Can Compete with Neezy?

Georgia, Atlanta, Apr 22, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Alabama-based rap artist Neezy is best known for her dance moves, hard-hitting lyrics, energetic live shows, and more. With vivid wordplay, she shows you how she is "Pressure" when it comes to her lifestyle. Her keep it "100" music draws influence from artists like Future. Adding her own flow to any production, is a recipe for a hit. You can get a small glimpse of the emcees' talents, on track, "Pressure." The 2021 release is making waves on Youtube.

The video puts a visual to the dynamic lyrics. Showing that if you stay down and true to yourself, you will keep winning. Her style, her flow, creates the perfect combination for “Pressure” to be relatable and continue to take off in the digital world, as well as the streets.

Neezy has worked hard and collaborated with others in the past, landing her current situation with The New BustBack Records. Originating in her home state Alabama, the deal gives her the opportunity to work closely with another state native, who happens to be an industry legend as well, Dj Dirty Dan. Owner and CEO of The New BustBack Records, Dj Dirty Dan deserves to be one of Neezy’s music idols. Dj Dirty Dan has been the force behind a number of independent artists’ success coming through Alabama. At some point in Neezy’s career, she bonds to connect and work with Dj Dirty Dan.

Neezy’s work so far has found her performing on the main stages of Coast2Coast, The Big Break, as well as being published in K100. Soon after, her music video “Pressue” hits over 100k plays on YouTube. In remembrance of her brother Kenyale, Neezy will always put her best forward when building friendships and partnerships in this industry. Neezy knows she can give the urban music scene the motivation it needs.

Starting music at the age of 8, shows that this is long-term for Neezy. Going from getting dance rewards in High school, to doing music for a living. Neezy has made a name for herself in her market. It is time now for the world to see what pressure really is, in the rap game. In a world of over-sexualized leading ladies and a drug-infected culture, Neezy is a role model for the real. Preaching that street motivation to never give up and make money during the process. Stay connected on all social media platforms and music streaming sites.

Media Contact

Kendra Kay

info@jamz.city

Source : The New Bust Back Records

See on IssueWire