

ProofHub Named to Forbes List Of America's Best Startup Employers 2021

California, Walnut, Apr 8, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - ProofHub was listed in Forbes among the best startup employers in America for the year 2021 for creating an outstanding work culture for its employees.

November 6, 2020. ProofHub, the all-in-one project management, and collaboration software have been recognized by Forbes as one of the nation's top startup employers in 2021.

Forbes partnered with the market research firm Statista to compile its annual list of America's Best Employers for 2021. The final list recognized the top 500 companies by evaluating around 2,500 American businesses and 7 million data points. Only the companies that could meet all the three criteria: employer reputation, employee satisfaction, and company growth, made the final cut.

"We are honored and excited to be chosen by Forbes as one of America's best startup employers for 2021", said Sandeep Kashyap, ProofHub's CEO. "I couldn't be more proud to lead an organization that always puts the needs of its employees and customers at the top of its priority list. The success of ProofHub truly does rely on the strength of its employees", Being included in this prestigious list shows that we are on the right track as our dedication to creating a great work environment has a tangible impact."

As a leading SaaS project management platform, the ultimate goal of ProofHub is to deliver values and quick solutions to its customers, while cultivating a work culture that drives innovation and motivates its employees to grow on both professional as well as individual levels. ProofHub has succeeded in not only creating best-in-class project and team management solutions but also in creating a best-in-class team that delivers exceptional results.

The Forbes America's Best Startup Employers 2021 list was announced on March 9th and can be viewed on the Forbes website. For more information on ProofHub, visit <https://www.proofhub.com/>
