

Seasoned Pop And R&B Artist Sharmila Presents Her Newest Emotional Album By The Same Name

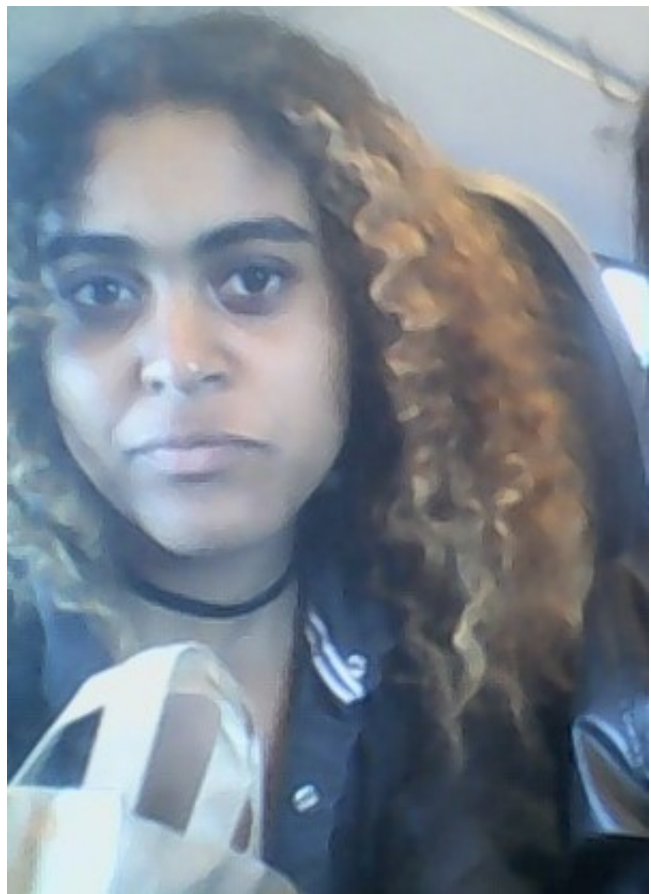

California, Los Angeles, Apr 12, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Music is the most artistic and graceful way to express one's mind and emotions. Eminent singer-songwriter Sharmila has established an amazing soundscape transforming her raw thoughts into thought-provoking musical numbers. She has recently released an enticing album called 'Sharmila' on major streaming platforms. The album has a total of 9 tracks that are rich in retro rhythmic beats and optimistic lyrical illustrations. The opening song 'Burning for You' offers a dynamic rhythmic cadence that is perfect for the club scene.

The brilliant musician has created this album in loving memory of Tanisha Chandenie, her 25-year-old daughter, who got sick after drinking tap water. The poignancy in her heart is reflected in the resonance of her creations. The heart-touching melodies of the tracks 'Like a Drug?', 'Bridge', 'All I Want, and 'Running' connect with the audience on a higher level being extremely relatable. Her enticing voice penetrates through the hearts making a permanent impression.

The brilliant singer experimented with elements from different musical forms such as pop, R&B, and even some dance in his latest album 'Sharmila'. The blissful flavor of the 90's and early 2000's pop and hip hop intermingled with the subtle yet powerful dance cadence separates this album from its contemporaries. The talented versatile artist switches from one to another rhythmic flow and singing style with ease.

Sharmila entered the music scene at a very young age. She became a pro through hard work and dedication. She opened for the famous American boy band O-Town last year. She was also a part of the 2000-23013 hit MTV reality show, O-Town. Her newest album has something for everyone. To listen to her music and stay updated about her upcoming releases, follow Sharmila on Spotify.

Media Contact

Sharmila

sharmila@gmail.com

Source : Sharmila

See on IssueWire