Get to know Internist Dr. Syed Wasimul Haque, who serves patients in Frederick, Maryland.

New York, New York City, Apr 28, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - A skilled and competent internist & primary care doctor, Dr. Haque sees patients at his private practice - Dr. Syed Wasimul Haque, MD, PA - in Frederick, Maryland.

With more than 25 years of medical experience in primary care, he provides medical care to a variety of patients ages 16 and up. He sees many senior citizens, older adults, and geriatric patients who need personalized medical care. He has experience treating patients with the following conditions: chest infection, heart diseases, diabetes, hypertension, joint diseases, thyroid diseases, opioid addiction, cannabis certification, kidney diseases, COPD, and liver diseases.

With a solo practitioner structure, Dr. Haque believes in personalized health care and building a relationship with his patients for long and short-term care. This creates a level of comfort that is not possible at other medical practices that have multiple care providers.

The doctor's acclaimed career in medicine began after he obtained his medical degree from Jinnah Sindh Medical University in Pakistan in 1986. He then relocated to the United States, performing his residency in internal medicine at Maryland General Hospital.

Subsequent to his education, Dr. Haque attained board certification in internal medicine through the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

On a more personal note, Dr. Haque speaks both English and Urdu.
