

Trouble Maker Entertainment presents new female artist Chyna Doll and the new single "Don't Spray Me" featuring Trina.

The young Chyna Doll is more than a 10th grader is showing now fear coming out of the gate as a new artist with female hip hop legend Trina.

Florida, Miami, Apr 18, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - New break-out artist Chyna Doll is living up to her chosen name. For a 10th grader, she is showing she can hang with the best. Launching single "Don't spray me" featuring female rap artist and hip hop pioneer Trina.

And backing the young artist is Trouble Makers Entertainment and the artist's mother, Benza as her manager. Chyna Doll's single is streaming on social media platforms it's. The best way to find her is to type in "Don't spray me" by Chyna Doll.

With a legendary name used by wrestling female legend Chyna, the chosen album name from Foxy Brown. So much expectation from this young music artist, and it looks like exceeding the standard.

Media Contact

Trouble Maker Entertainment

WilliamHarris@hloyalglobal.com

7132984097

Source : Trouble Makers Entertainment / HLoyal Management And Pr

See on IssueWire