Total Health Medical Centers is a primary care and multi-specialty group dedicated to the advancement of healthcare in every community it serves. The providers take a human approach to medicine, building relationships that improve patient comfort and bringing all aspects of healthcare together under one roof to increase convenience, reduce costs, and improve outcomes for patients.

Throughout his academic career, Dr. Fraser obtained his medical degree from the University of the West Indies, Faculty of Medical Sciences in Jamaica in 1979. He then went on to perform his internship and residency in family medicine at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Florida.

A member of the American Academy of Family Physicians, he is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

With a good bedside manner, Dr. Fraser attributes his success to his dedication to his patients, the friendly atmosphere at his practice, and his ability to listen to his patients and know how to respond to their medical needs. His patients appreciate the care they receive from him.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

Honoring his clinical expertise, Dr. Fraser is the recipient of the Patients' Choice Award (2010, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015) and Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2010, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2016).

Outside of practicing medicine, he enjoys listening to music, playing soccer and cricket, and running track and field. His favorite professional publication is the journal, American Family Physician. He speaks English, French, and Spanish.
