

World's Largest Virtual Gathering of Technology Entrepreneurs Happening at TiEcon 2021

Silicon Valley's annual flagship conference on May 6-8, 2021

California, San Jose, Apr 9, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Announcing titans of industry and technology as Grand Stage Speakers at TiEcon 2021- Ratan Naval Tata of Tata Group, Reed Hastings of Netflix, Nikesh Arora of Palo Alto Networks, and Navin Chaddha of Mayfield Fund.

SAN JOSE, Calif., April 6, 2021 --TiEcon, the signature annual event of TiE Silicon Valley is announcing its second virtual event, TiEcon 2021. Among the largest global technology entrepreneurship conferences of its kind, TiEcon is delivering 3 days of engaging programming to take place on May 6-8, 2021.

"Keeping up with our 28 years of TiEcon tradition, we are absolutely thrilled to honor these titans of industry and technology on the grand stage," said AGK Karunakaran, President, TiE Silicon Valley.

Featuring more than 200 speakers and 100 virtual exhibitors, TiEcon 2021 expects to draw in 10,000 global attendees at the three-day event. Participants immerse themselves in the latest technology trends and hear from outstanding entrepreneurs and visionary leaders.

This year, the grand-stage speakers will include Ratan Naval Tata, chairman of Tata Trusts and chairman emeritus of Tata Group; KanwalRekhi, Managing Director, Inventus Capital Partners; Reed Hastings, Founder and co-CEO of Netflix; Nikesh Arora, CEO and chairman of Palo Alto Networks; and NavinChaddha, Managing Partner, Mayfield Fund, who will be receiving the Venture Capitalist of the Year Award.

TiEcon 2021 will offer multiple tracks on cutting-edge technology topics, including Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning, Cloud, Security, and Healthcare. Insights on Entrepreneurship and the Future of Work in a global context will be explored as well.

The conference will also feature sessions specifically relevant to startups, like Mentor Connect, VC Connect, Global Connect, Startup Bootcamp, Young Entrepreneurs, TiE50 Awards, and EXPO Product Showcase.

The one-day Entrepreneurship Bootcamp will take international entrepreneurs through a rigorous program to get them ready for pitching to investors and venture capitalists.

VC Connect and Mentor Connect sessions offer early to mid-stage startup founders a chance to receive valuable, candid, and direct advice from successful Silicon Valley venture capitalists and entrepreneurs.

TiE50, the coveted awards program for global startups, will screen thousands of applications for TiEcon 2021. Since its inception, TiE50 startups have gone on to raise over $1 billion in funding. Select winners will also present at the coveted 'Meet the Drapers' show to pitch their ideas to Silicon Valley's renowned VC family, The Drapers.
