

Yung Anoma1y Added to Roster for a National Tour with Rock Out Against Bullying Tour

Yung Anoma1y will be bringing his debut single “I Remember The Days” to local FM radio stations this June, listeners are waiting for his newest creation.

Illinois, Chicago, Jun 2, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Hip Hop sensation, YUNG ANOMA1Y, takes center stage as he has been added to the Rock Out Against Bullying Tour (an NFL Alumni Association). He will be joining the tour in Atlantic City, NJ on July 4, 2021, and then the whirlwind tour will be headed to The Mosaic Theater, Las Vegas on August 21, 2021.

"We're psyched to be able to add such a talented artist like YUNG ANOMA1Y to our national tour against bullying", said CFO John P. Holder. "YUNG ANOMA1Y is a great role model for children because he is an entertainer and a recent graduate with a PhD. Our children need to see that. Other artists need to see that."

Having grown up in the Bronx River Projects Yung Anoma1y has been apt in playing instruments, writing poetry, drawing and so on. At a very early age only, he had a very strong foundation of writing and he had his poetry published. He moved on with his Bachelor of Science degree and well as his Master's Degree. It was 2019 summer when he came up with his first song and recorded it. It had the wonderful title Yung Anoma1y- I Pray". On May 15th 2021 he released his 1st E.P. titled Pain to Paper. 'I Remember the Days' will be the lead singer of the project and is now playing on FM radios stations everywhere.
