His expertise in Composing and producing different songs with his unique style of essence makes his popularity soaring in the past few months.

Jharkhand, Jamshedpur, May 17, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Aniruddha Roy is one of the known names when it comes to emerging music composers and music producers. His incredible set of songs and music makes him a known face in his circle and fans. His expertise in Composing and producing different types of songs with his unique style makes his popularity soaring in the past few months. Being a small-town boy from Jamshedpur, Jharkhand, Aniruddha Roy is a multi-instrumentalist, music composer, and music producer. At his early age, he got his training in Piano and Keyboards by Shri K.Rao at Sangeet Samaj, Telco, Jamshedpur. From his school time, he started winning in different city-level and state-level competitions which boosts his urge of learning more and excelling.

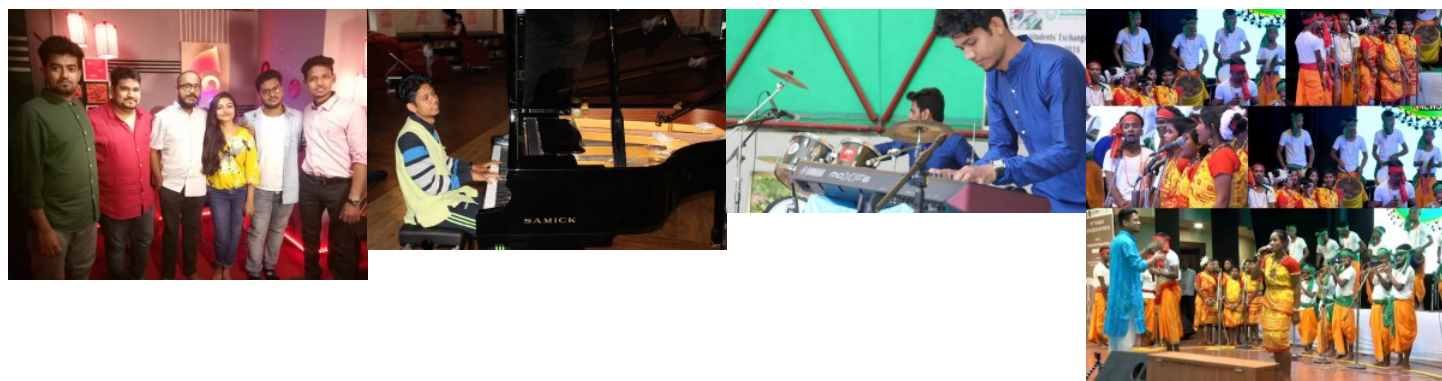

At his Teenage, he has also performed internationally during his college days. In 2016, he performed in Seoul and Busan in South Korea. In 2017, he has performed in Busan, South Korea, and Fukuoka, Japan. He has also featured in Aprozashito 2 Episode 18 with the Bangla Band, Crossroads. This season has also featured many popular singers and musicians such as Anupam Roy, Joy Sarkar, Sidhu, etc.

Recently, Aniruddha Roy has achieved something extra-ordinary and makes India proud of being an independent musician. He has been awarded as the Best Artist in EDM/Electronic Genre by DJOOKY Music Awards. He is the first Indian to get this award. More than 50 countries were participating in this prestigious international award.

The song which got nominated for this award is “Tribe Within”. It is an Electronic Dance song with Aniruddha’s unique style of Tribal elements adds a very hypnotic essence to listeners to bounce with its grooves. Tribe Within is now officially available on major streaming platforms such as Spotify, amazon music, apple music, youtube, jiosaavn, and many more.

Besides this, Aniruddha Roy also has a keen interest in tribal music. Due to which he founded a unique choir “KALINGA AVATAR – The Indian Tribal Choir” under the mentorship of the great philanthropist and social activist, Dr. Achyuta Samanta Founder of Kalinga Institute of Industrial Technology (KIIT) and Kalinga Institute of Social Sciences (KISS). This Choir was launched by Shri Akhilesh Mishra, Director-General(Ex), Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR), New Delhi.

Though, Aniruddha Roy has achieved and contributed quite a lot at this young age still he states “I am still standing far from my goal to achieve, to contribute something good to the society, to my country”. This type of dedication will someday show the country and the world that you don’t have to go to Metros to fulfill your dreams, you can show your capability of staying at a small town
