

Attorney Jeffery M. Leving to speak on civil rights at Families and Fathers National Conference

Illinois, Chicago, May 19, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Internationally renowned Fathers' Rights Attorney Jeffery M. Leving will be a featured speaker at the 22nd annual Families and Fathers National Conference in Los Angeles on Wednesday, May 19. His topic will be the civil rights of minority fathers in the criminal justice system and eliminating systemic barriers to father involvement with their children in family law.

Leving will be joined on a panel by two professors, Armon R. Perry of the University of Louisville and Jay Fagan of Temple University, who will discuss the social impacts of father absence. The moderator will be Dr. James C. Rodriguez, president and chief executive of the Fathers & Families Coalition of America. The panel is scheduled to run 10:45 a.m.-12:15 p.m. CDT (8:45-10:15 a.m. PDT).

"For more than 15 years, I have supported the Fathers and Families Coalition of America, championing the rights of children. Children must excel and be their best and have the support of both parents. Our future as a nation starts with building healthy communities," Leving says.

The conference is taking place at the Hilton Los Angeles Airport Hotel in Los Angeles. This prestigious event assembles leaders and experts in child welfare, early childhood, marriage and family therapy, social work, criminal justice, psychology, education, counseling and family service work, and presents important lectures, workshops and plenary discussions. The lecturers will address the impact of fatherlessness and fathers' impact on children's development.

Leving, founder and president of the Law Offices of Jeffery M. Leving Ltd. in Chicago, is a pioneer in the Fathers' Rights movement and has dedicated 40 years to strengthening healthy families and improving outcomes for children. He founded the Fatherhood Educational Institute, which provides critical parenting skills to fathers and seeks to eliminate father absence.

He is the author of Fathers' Rights, Divorce Wars and How to be a Good Divorced Dad, the latter of which was endorsed by President Obama and by Cardinal Francis E. George, then the archbishop of Chicago. To learn more about Leving and his latest court victories, follow him on Twitter and Facebook, and view his videos on You Tube.
