

Canadian Band Newlaw Leave a Permanent Mark on the Adolescent Mind with Their Thought-Provoking Compositions

Young and talented Canadian brothers created a band named NewLaw to bring their outstanding musical talent to the world through their therapeutic soundscape.

Calgary, May 19, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Music opens the world of whole new experiences for both the listeners and the musicians. Well-known musical group NewLaw is spreading its positive energy into the world with its outstanding melodies. The band has released an enticing melody called, 'Lucky, Stupid, Crazy' on major streaming platforms showcasing their boundless creativity. Their next two songs from the same collection, 'Wish I Was There' and 'Next to Me' feature a mesmerizing rhythmic cadence that is enhanced further with their charming singing. The overall symphony of the compositions paints a vivid picture of their truest thoughts and emotions.

The band is founded by brothers, Cayd, Ty, and Dayne Greiner, who have come together to entertain music-lovers around the world. Growing up with numerous musical influences around them in Calgary, Alberta, the brothers found calling for music at a very young age. Blending pop and country music together, they present a brilliant soundscape that separates them from the crowd. They were discovered on YouTube by America's Got Talent and asked to perform on the show. They became quite popular after that. Their hit single, 'Next to Me', ranked in the CBC Country's Top 40 and the Canadian Country Billboard Charts in 2020.

The supremely talented siblings are pursuing their musical dreams backed by their unbound creativity and imaginations. NewLaw has released their finest compositions, 'Lucky, Stupid, Crazy', 'Wish I Was There', and 'Next to Me' creating a huge impression in the industry.
