Maharashtra, Mumbai, May 12, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - At a juncture when the daily case-load of COVID-19 is rising very alarmingly in India, the US-based Association of ethnic Indian-American doctors MD TOK has volunteered to send its medical team to India to stop the spread of the pandemic.

The telemedicine platform MD TOK (www.MDTok.com) is providing much-needed services to Indian patients absolutely free. The services of MD TOK, the biggest group of Indian-American physicians, can go a long way in reducing the growth of pandemics besides reducing the number of patients seeking beds in hospitals.

Through the benefit of multilingual services, the members of MD TOK speaking Punjabi, Hindi, Marathi, Gujarati, Tamil, and Telugu can now offer medical guidance to the people in India in these languages. The COVID-19 patients in India can consult them using smartphones and the internet.

The effort of MD TOK to combat soaring COVID-19 cases in India has been very positively responded to by the Indian-American doctors. This is evident from the fact that over 400 doctors from the US alone joined MD TOK and they already served over 10,000 patients in India. Nearly 130,000 Indians approach for help from MD TOK. In fact, the free service provided to Indians by MD TOK evoked global response from doctors of Indian origin practicing in different parts of the world besides the USA. A large number of doctors of Indian origin settled in Singapore, Dubai, Canada, and Australia have also joined the initiatives of MD TOK.

The MD TOK is mainly concerned with Healthcare, Second opinion, Health Care Information Technology, Health and Wellness, and Telemedicine.

MD TOK, currently making a great difference in combating COVID-19 in India by providing free consultations in local Indian languages, has made an indelible imprint on the map of health service in the world through its voluntary service in India.

Some life choices can be really tough. Especially medical ones like heart surgery, joint replacement, or cancer treatment. We connect you with leading experts for a second opinion via phone or video call so that you can focus on your medical decisions.

Already achieving greatly in stopping the community transmission of COVID-19 through its teleconsultation, the startup teleHealth company MDtok offered a major opportunity to Indian-American doctors to set a record of free service to the needy people in a pandemic time.

At the helm of affairs of MDtok are eminent doctors like Dr. Abhijeet Nakave, Dr. Gupta, and Dr. Nishant Sangole supported by Dr. Hemraj Gaidhani Ph.D., Glen Morten, John Pletka.
